Official Rules | Miriam Rivera Lieb Emerging Leader Award

Nomination Phase

Young professionals under the age of 40, who have not yet reached the CEO level can be nominated. The nominated young professional must join, or already be a member, of the MD|DC Credit Union Association’s Young Professional Network. To become a YPN member, visit: https://www.mddccua.org/cu-community/young-professionals-network. The Miriam Rivera Lieb Emerging Leader Award is presented by the MD|DC Credit Union Association (the “Presenter”).

Nominations can be made by a peer or supervisor, or you can nominate yourself. However, the nomination application must be completed by the nominee and approved by their CEO.

The nomination phase begins at 12:01 a.m. Eastern Time on February 3, 2020 and ends at 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on March 2, 2020.

Eligibility

This competition is open to employees of MD|DC Credit Union Association member credit unions, who are under the age of 40, and who join or are a member of the MD|DC Credit Union Association’s Young Professionals Network.

How to Enter

To enter go to mddccua.org during the nomination phase and fully complete an application form, which includes answering three essay questions.

Notice: You must comply with the following rules when you submit an application.

• Do not do anything in connection with creating your video that might endanger anyone, including yourself, or which could cause damage to property or your application;
• The entry submission cannot contain any language, images or content that conflicts with any of the Presenter’s core values, or otherwise objectionable;
• Cannot contain any content that violates any law or any third party’s rights (including trademark, copyright, privacy and intellectual property rights).

If your application does not comply, it may result in your submission being disqualified.

Entry must consist of:

1. Fully completed entry form
   a. Written answers to three (3) questions
   b. Permission from nominee’s CEO

All applications are subject entirely to the discretion of the Presenter, whose decisions are final. Each entry that meets the criteria above and that is submitted in accordance with these Rules, will become eligible for the Selection Phase.
Selection Phase

The Selection Phase will begin following the Nomination Phase.

A panel of judges will select the top nominees (up to 5) to advance to the next phase (Online Voting Phase). Judges can pick up to 5 nominees if the scores are determined too close to call.

The judging panel will evaluate written applications submitted. The results will be tabulated and the top nominees (up to 5) will be named as Finalists. Finalists will be notified by email and announced on the website (mddccua.org) on or about March 20, 2020.

The Judging panel scores will be calculated as 50 percent of a nominee’s final score.

Online Voting Phase

Videos of the top nominees (up to 5) selected by the panel of judges will be posted online, allowing the public and credit unions to vote for their favorite nominee.

The online voting phase begins at 12:01 am Eastern Time on April 14, 2020 and ends at 11:59 pm Eastern Time on April 29, 2020.

The total votes each nominee receives will be calculated as 25 percent of their final score.

Final Presentation Phase

The Finalists will present their ideas during the MD|DC Credit Union Association’s 2020 Annual Business Meeting in Ocean City, MD. on June 9, 2020. Attendees will vote for their favorite presentations in real time. 25 percent of each Finalists’ score will be based on votes received from AMC attendees following the presentations, and 25 percent will come from the panel of judges.

The final scores will be tabulated for each finalist and one winner will be declared on June 9, 2020 at the MD|DC Credit Union Association’s closing reception.

Prize Package

The winner of the Miriam Rivera Lieb Emerging Leader Award will be presented with the following professional development package sponsored by CUNA Mutual Group:
